

Norms

- Accountability: Do your part on group projects/assignments. Stay on top of your assignments and complete any missed assignments when needed.
- Be respectful to not only your team but also your professors.
- Attend class and be on time. Your absence doesn't only affect you but also your team.
- Be productive by doing quality work, do not be counterproductive and interfere with others work
- Present your, and the group's work with pride. Only we can present our work the way we intend to. So that being said, use your full potential.
- There are no bad ideas. Share what is on your mind.
- Everything is a team effort.
- Attend outside class events/meetings
- In case of group altercation always settle the problem quickly, so it doesn't affect the team.
- If there are a few good ideas we will have a group vote.
- If a meeting/work is missed, simply take lead on the next assignment or make it up to the group; i.e. doing more work/food
